

Starting Family Research on the World Wide Web

The Nosey Genealogist

Building your Family Tree

- Using the Internet for Ancestor Research.
 - Making sense of all those resources.
 - Free ones
 - Pay-as-you-go
 - Subscription sites
-
-

How to Quickly & Easily Populate your Family Tree

- Trips to Archives
- Library
- County Record Offices
- National Archives

Need to Find Information On-line

- Internet has untold numbers of resources
- This volume makes life easier
- Search engines show massive numbers

Various Sources on Internet

- Government Offices
 - Family History Societies
 - Volunteer groups
 - Data collections
 - CDs and Books for sale
 - Scanned books
 - Maps
 - Transcribed indexes
 - Monumental inscriptions
 - Trade and Newspapers
-
-

Some of the Most Useful Websites

- www.FreeBMD.org.uk
- www.nationalarchives.gov.uk
 - Catalogue
 - Documents On-Line
- www.cyndislist.com
- www.bbc.co.uk/history/familyhistory
- www.gro.gov.uk/gro/content/certificates/
- www.scotlandspeople.gov.uk
- www.familysearch.org
- www.originsnetwork.com

Some of the Most Useful Websites

- www.ancestry.co.uk
- www.findmypast.com
- www.thegenealogist.co.uk
- www.genuki.org.uk
- www.familyrelatives.com
- www.ukbmd.org.uk
- www.deceasedonline.com
- www.sog.org.uk
- http://newspapers.bl.uk/blcs/
- www.ancestralatlas.com

